

“Sustainable forestry management through added value products. Practical cases from the Mediterranean”

Technical seminar organized by Life Mycorestore

Tavertet: Wednesday December 1st , 2021

Programme:

09.30: Reception at hotel Avenc de Tavertet

10.00: Life MycoRestore:

- Mycelio: Exotic mushrooms from locally harvested wood sources (Tomas Viguurs)
- Volterra: Biochar, composting from forest and other waste sources (Priya Devasirvatham)
- ID Forest: Truffle production in new and existing forest stands (Iván Franco Manchón)
- CNR Italia: Protection of chestnut stands from Ink disease using native mycology resources. Experiences in Italian Apennines (Gianni Della Roca)

11.00: Bolet Ben Fet: Creating a market for mushrooms in Catalonia and beyond (Carles Diaz)

11.30: Coffee break

11.45: Castañas Viladrau: Added value products from old chestnuts (Joaquim Solé)

12.00: Selvans: Innovative monetisation methods to conserve old growth forests (Stefan Esser)

12.15: Life Climark: Climate credits to foster multifunctional forest management (Teresa Baiges)

12.30: Roundtable discussion

13.00: Visit Mycelio’s mushroom production facilities (at Avenc)

13.30: Lunch optional at Avenc (€35 incl. 1 glass of wine/beer/softdrink)

15.00: Visit to Mycelio’s substrate production facilities (at nearby Mas Rajols farm)

16.00: End of program